Community Announcements and Reminders

- Volunteers needed for the Air Show. Hundreds of volunteers are needed for the Kaneohe Bay Air Show and Open House to assist in food service, marketing, ticketing and more, October 16-18. Volunteers will receive an airshow volunteer t-shirt and certificate of appreciation. Volunteering provides an opportunity to help the community, build self-confidence, gain new job skills and meet new friends! More information and sign-ups are available at this website:
<http://www.kaneohebayairshow.com/volunteer.html>
- Throughout the year, 13 races come together to make up the Commanding Officer's Semper Fit Series. The Commanding Officer's Series is open to the public. Run along the shoreline of the Pacific Ocean, up mountainous terrain, and even through swampy waters...the challenge is always new and exciting. The next event is the Sunset Flight Line 5K, Friday, Sept. 18, 5:30 p.m., at Hangar 102, Marine Corps Base Hawaii. Online registration closes Sept. 14. Registration details and information can be found on the MCCS website: <http://mccshawaii.com/races/>
- Marine Corps Base Hawaii will host the Kaneohe Bay Air Show and Open House Oct 17-18, 2015. This is an Open House event, including FREE admission, FREE parking, and a FREE world-class air show. The show will feature the U.S. Navy Flight Demonstration Team, the Blue Angels, along with a list of exhilarating professional performers and historical Warbirds, static displays, Keiki events, and much, much more. Please bring your family and friends to this great event! For those who wish to upgrade their viewing experience, premium seating is available for purchase. Marine Corps Community Services' seating and private, shaded chalets provide the ultimate one-of-a-kind airshow experience.
