

Welcome to Headquarters Battalion

Dear Marine/Sailor and Family Members,

Aloha! Welcome to Headquarters Battalion, Marine Corps Base Hawaii. We are happy to have you as part of our Battalion Family. Our mission at Headquarters Battalion is to provide superior support to the various sections that provide services to the Marines, Sailors, civilians and families stationed aboard Marine Corps Base Hawaii. An integral part of our mission is family readiness. Accordingly, our family readiness mission is to provide superior support, communication and services to you and your family.

The Marine Corps' and Navy's most valuable resource is the individual Marine, Sailor and their family. The Family Readiness program is a fully modernized and standardized program implemented to meet the current and future needs of you and your family. The Commandant and senior Marine Corps leaders have dedicated unprecedented resources to help Marines, Sailors and their families successfully meet the many challenges and demands of military life. To help accomplish this goal, the Headquarters Battalion Family Readiness Officer (FRO), Mrs. Alexandra Peterson, has been hired as a resource for you and your family. She will provide you with:

- Official two-way command communication
- Information and referral services
- Readiness and deployment support
- Volunteer management/ Opportunities to volunteer in Battalion activities

The FRO stands ready to assist you with any need you may encounter. She can be contacted at (808) 257-5738. Her office is located in the Headquarters Battalion command building, Building 4009. Feel free to stop by her office at any time. If you have a spouse or other family member in need of services or information, please ensure that individual is provided with the FRO's contact information as well.

Enjoy your tour of duty on the beautiful island of Oahu, and please take the time to introduce yourself and your family at the earliest opportunity to Mrs. Peterson. Mahalo!

Semper Fidelis,

MICHAEL L. BROOKS
Lieutenant Colonel, USMC
Commanding