

Complaints against PMO employees

Complaints against PMO employees are investigated by the Provost Marshal Office (PMO), Professional Standards Office (PSO).

Basis for discipline

PSO will investigate complaints regarding MP's, sworn and non-sworn civilian employees and contractors employed at PMO for:

On duty misconduct

Off-duty misconduct that has a nexus with USMC employment

Conduct that is criminal in nature

A signed statement is required to fully investigate your complaint. If you wish to remain anonymous your complaint will be reviewed and/or investigated in accordance with the Marine Corps Law Enforcement Manual, PMO policy, all applicable Federal, State and County laws.

You may mail a signed statement to the below address or you may appear in person and a statement will be taken by a Professional Standards Office representative.
