Marine Corps Base Hawaii announces 2022 Kaneohe Bay Air Show performer list

MARINE CORPS BASE HAWAII – The 2022 Kaneohe Bay Air Show is coming to Marine Corps Base Hawaii on Saturday, Aug. 13 and Sunday, Aug. 14, 2022. As this exciting event quickly approaches, MCBH continues to prepare for the arrival of our military and professional civilian performers.

In addition to our show headliner, the U.S. Navy Blue Angels, the event will feature performances from U.S. Air Force F-22 Raptor, PACAF F-16 Fighting Falcon, and C-17 Globemaster demonstration teams. Other performers include Coast Guard Search & Rescue, “Fear BOSS” by Jon Melby, the Flying Leathernecks Parachute Team, the Museum of Flight’s “Ramp Rat”, the “Smoke-n-Thunder” jet truck, and Red Bull Air Force!

The event will include musical performances by the U.S. Marine Corps Forces, Pacific Band, and the Royal Hawaiian Band. There will also be a variety of other activities including aviation and ground static displays, a car show, many food vendors, and the kid’s STEM Zone.

The 2020 Kaneohe Bay Air Show and Open House, “Blues on the Bay” is free and open to the general public. The installation’s main gate will open at 10:00 AM each day of the event. Tickets are not required to attend the event. For up-to-date air show information and the full list of performers and attractions, please visit the Kaneohe Bay Air Show website at (<https://www.kbayairshow.com/>).
